

Uganda Networks Management Group

Sue Craig

Sue has worked for organisations involved in Uganda for the past ten years and understands the challenges faced by small charities. During that time she studied for an MSc in Marketing and Fundraising for the Charity Sector.

Roger Marsden

Since retiring from the Ministry of Defence, for which he worked for 33 years covering postings in London, Hong Kong and Washington, Roger has volunteered on Christian Missions in South Dakota, North Uganda, Tamil Nadu and the Ukraine. He is also a Trustee for three UK charities: Faith in Action Community Development (working in Katete, SW Uganda), Uganda Christian University UK Partners and The Rhema Partnership (working in Tamil Nadu).

Ian Sanderson

Ian is the CEO and a founding trustee of Afrinspire. He is a Chartered Civil Engineer with specialism in water and irrigation engineering, and has also worked in ICT and Facilities within a global pharmaceutical company.

Ian has initiated many social start-up projects, community groups and community initiatives and is currently a trustee of three UK charities. His work takes him to Uganda twice a year.

Charles Woodd

Charles retired in 2011 after a 40 year career in community development and social policy, encompassing 28 years managing voluntary organisations, and 11 years as a policy advisor in the UK Government. Throughout his life he has been involved as a volunteer and a trustee in a series of charities and voluntary organisations. He is currently Hon Treasurer of the Uganda Church Association and Chair of the Friends of The Connection at St Martin-in-the-Fields. In 2011 he was awarded the OBE for services to community development.

